

Preservation Texas Honor Awards Celebration Recap

This year's Preservation Texas Honor Awards Celebration was a wonderful event. We had a turn out of over 100 guests! For those of you that did not get to join us, here is a recap of what happened.

The evening began with a fun hour of socializing and exploring the Mission San Jose. Although it was cold the warmth of the guests (and space heaters) kept the harsh weather at bay.

Our beloved Board President, Charlene Orr and Vice President, David Bucek addressed the guests with a message of appreciation from our organization.

Chet Garner from Day-tripper (PBS program) then began the Award Ceremony by talking of his own passions for preservation efforts. His presentation was the right measure of personal touch and inspiring mission.

The Award Winners were announced by category and given their award. Applause was heard echoing throughout the venue. The enthusiastic response of the crowd was indicative of the pride we find in these important preservation efforts.

The Honor Awards is a favorite event of Preservation Texas and its members. The host committee chaired by Ann Benson McGlone did a fabulous job and all had such a great time.

If you could not join us this year we look forward to seeing you next year!
